Reduce Impaired Driving Through Enforcement and Education: During the month of December Kings District saw an increase in traffic enforcement presence in partnership with the Provincial Priority Unit. Kings District in total saw 168 HTA tickets issued and 74 general warnings. We also participated in winter holiday road checks. Additional efforts resulted in 2 investigations of impaired driving ending in 1 charge and 4 more charges of driving while disqualified.

Enhancing Police Operations/Open Communication: Kings District RCMP remain involved in the schools, February saw a lot of time in schools with every school seeing an officer attend, present or socialize in addition to patrols before and after school. We engaged in important events that included community Aide de Camp training, an Intermediate School student vs. teachers and police hockey game, identification of a new peer to peer advisor, MADD, participation in Brave Spaces training and smudging of our Eagle Feather and creation of Tobacco offerings. We also saw everyone at the Detachment receive recognition, including outstanding service awards for our Public Service Employees and the presentation of a Medallion on behalf of the Commissioner of the RCMP to all of our employees in recognition of our 150th Anniversary. Regular members allowed to write the promotion exam also had the full month of February to do so. We also saw in person tri-annual training, with a third of our membership at the APA in order to renew regular member mandatory use of force skills and saw the issuance of new CEW's to those qualified to carry them. We saw the installation of a publicly accessible interview room and this will bring us to having access to three different venues for interviewing clients. Looking ahead we are preparing for our fiscal year end, performance agreements and assessment reporting as well as a KAIROS blanket ceremony scheduled to take place in March and Change of Command for our new Commanding Officer May.

Considerable effort in the preparation of a trial by jury with respect to a significant domestic assault and firearm offence from June, set for the end of February was adjourned after allegations of breach and witness interference came to light. This was decided by Crown Counsel in order for the new information to be assessed. Finally, one youth in the homicide from December has plead guilty for his involvement and which is set for Sentencing in April.

Media Relations/PSA's: We saw a comical story of a Seal rescue after receiving multiple calls in Murray Harbour. Our HQ is also attempting to arrange meetings to include our senior staff including me to meet with senior officials of the media in order to strengthen our partnership with them in critical incidents. Lastly, we saw a prolific youth apprehend in Border with a truck stolen from Kings and be held in custody while another male who had eluded police for a year on an outstanding warrant of domestic assault also be arrest and held in custody

Human Resources: We currently have 19 of 24 members in place. Only 17 of those 19 however are considered a full resource as training requirements for new members and my own injury create restrictions on duties that can be performed. Of the 5 vacancies, 3 members are off for medical reasons, a fourth off on parental leave and we have two vacant positions pending fill. Sergeant Chris MacDonald has been officially selected as the incoming Ops NCO and likely to be in place mid April and is from Kings County. We are still waiting for Constable Joel Talbot from the Yukon to be issued a transfer and Constable Sebastien Gladman an EPO from Hamilton is set to arrive in June. We also saw Constable Glendon Vautour arrive from Depot on February 18 and he is being trained by Constable Matthew Muirhead, who has just been advised he won a promotion to Depot and is expected to depart a school end.
